

FIRST OFFLINE LECTURE TITLED “CAREER IN LAW”

The Department of laws conducted its first offline lecture on the topic, “ Career in Law” in the blended mode. The lecture was delivered by Hon’ble Mr. Justice Arun kumar Tyagi, (Former Judge, Punjab and Haryana High Court). The inaugural speech was given by Prof. Dr. Devinder Singh, Chairperson Department of laws, Panjab University. The session was chaired by Dr. Deepak Jindal. The lecture was attended offline by more than 80 students following the COVID guidelines.

Hon’ble Mr. Justice Arun Kumar Tyagi in his opening words observed that we are all students learning at different stages in life, the only distinction being in terms of knowledge and experience. Sir, also paid tributes to his teachers for inspiring and guiding him. The entire lecture revolved around various dimensions of profession in law, where the 3A’s i.e. attitude, aptitude and altitude should be enthralled upon. Legal profession has a widest possible progression. Sir, emphasised upon the skills of a good lawyer and the fact that the values and ethics should not be overshadowed by the monetary consideration. This lecture was highly motivational and an eye opener for the students.
