

THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW CLUB (IPLC)

Greetings Everyone!

We are ecstatic to preconize that our Department, The Department of Laws, PU is instituting The Intellectual Property Law Club (IPLC). The same is being formulated under the aegis of our dynamic President of the Club, Prof. (Dr.) Jyoti Rattan and Mentorship of Ms. Ajayita Sandhu, Dr. Vibhuti Nakta, Learned Assistant Professors and Ms. Shruti Dahiya, Junior Research Scholar(JRF).

About the Club

We are Department of Laws, premier intellectual property organisation. We aim to hone our driven members into confident and robust applicants into future educational endeavours. Participating in our club means strengthening your written communication, research skills, and analytical abilities alongside likeminded peers. Within our club, you will have opportunities to participate in projects within our networking & outreach and research team: work towards publishing research; master effective public presentation and argumentation skills; and build connections with professionals across various sectors. The Intellectual Property Law Club (IPLC) seeks to encourage and promote student interest in intellectual property law. In addition to providing a forum for the exchange of information and ideas in intellectual property law, the IPLC sponsors speakers, seminars, and conferences that cover a wide variety of current topics in patent, trademark, and copyright law. The club will organise events sponsored by counterpart organisations at other area law schools.

The Intellectual Property Law Club (IPLC) aspires to offer students the opportunity to better understand the practice of intellectual property rights(IPR). It is a club of students and for the students with a passion for all things related to Law and Technology. The group's mandate is to discuss, promote, and participate in activities and programs related to intellectual property law at Department of Laws, Panjab University.

Among the clubs goals and initiatives

- To offer seminars which attract practicing lawyers who speak about the latest developments in technology and intellectual property law.
- To arrange field trips or meetings between students and professionals in the fields of interest.
- To organise an annual conference focusing on a particular theme which attracts students, lawyers, industry professionals and academics.
- To conduct workshops and lectures on themes like IP Rights in Virtual Space, MP3 technology, copyrights, patents, trademarks, Geographical Indications, Internet broadcasting and censorship and privacy.
- To provide a common space for support with technical background.
- To network and to create opportunities for students to advance their interests, studies and careers.
- To inspire creativity, innovation and entrepreneurship in an age of development, growth and productivity.

The IPLC strives to enable student- members to stay informed of current issues and advancements in the Law by organising panels, quiz's, lectures, social events and informational meetings with Law firms.

The IPLC aims to provide a forum where members can connect with fellow students who share a mutual interest in intellectual property and technology. If you have any questions or want to be placed on the IPLC email list, please feel free to reach out to a member of our leadership team. Be sure to check your email for other important updates and news from IPLC !
