CALL FOR PAPERS

Subject: Publication of MAGLAW student journal- Volume III Issue I (2024).

MAGLAW is an annual publication in existence since 2019. It operates as a peer-reviewed and refereed journal specifically designed for students. The journal welcomes high-quality papers from students and provides them with an opportunity to showcase their research and scholarly work.

The publication of the upcoming Volume III Issue I for year 2024 is approaching. Students enrolled in three-year and five-year law programmes, LL.M., and Ph.D. have the opportunity to submit their research papers, case comments, and book reviews by February 28, 2024.

To facilitate speedy processing of the manuscripts, authors are requested to strictly adhere to the publication guidelines. Queries concerning the journal and submissions therein may be mailed to maglaw@pu.ac.in.

* Journal submissions and tracking is through Open Journal System (OJS),

CONDITIONS OF PUBLICATION

1. Anonymity:

The authors must maintain anonymity by not mentioning any personal credentials in their work, as we are committed to fairness and impartiality during the whole process of publication.

 It is required that the authors send a cover letter consisting of your name, course pursuing, email id, affiliation and contact details.

2. Liability for Copyright Violations and Plagiarism:

Submissions are accepted for publication on the condition that they do not infringe the copyright or any other rights of any third parties and that the work does not contain any obscene, offensive, defamatory, or racially prejudiced material. The author of the research paper shall be liable for any plagiarized content. There shall be no liability of the publisher whatsoever for any plagiarism or copyright violation. Authors should ensure that they have written entirely original works, and if the authors have used the work and/or words of others, the work has been appropriately cited or quoted. A certificate of originality acquired from Turnitin or Urkund must be submitted along with the work. The plagiarism must not exceed 20%.

3. Open Access Statement:

The MAGLAW is committed to open access for academic work. All the articles published in the MAGLAW are freely accessible immediately from the date of publication. There are no author charges prior to publication, and there is no charge for any reader to access and download our articles for their own personal use. The ownership and copyright of the material published by submitters lie solely with the journal.

4. Submission Guidelines:

The MAGLAW is an annual journal that accepts submissions on a rolling basis from the students pursuing law (LL.B. B.A./B/Com./BBA LL.B. etc.), LL.M. and Ph.D in the field of law. All submissions will be made through the Open Journal System (OJS), and the submitters can track their submissions through the OJS, which will be updated from time to time. All submissions must be accompanied by a covering letter indicating name of the author, title of the submission, and author's email address. The work must also consist of an abstract, an introduction, the legal point/points involved, case laws cited with proper citation, and a conclusion. The Editorial Board, overseen by the Editor in Chief, will conduct an initial evaluation and editing process for the submitted content as part of the peer review process, following which it will be sent to the reviewers/referees. The submitted work should not have been published or submitted for publication anywhere.

* Submissions from student authors and professionals as co-authors will not be considered.

5. Word Limit:

The MAGLAW accepts submissions in the following categories:

- Research Papers: 3,000 - 6,000 words
- Case Notes: 2,500 – 3,000 words
- Book Reviews: 1,000-2,000 words

* All word limits are exclusive of footnotes

The journal is flexible on the word count depending on the quality of the submission. Referencing and citation must be in conformity with the Indian Law Institute (ILI) footnoting pattern (<https://www.ili.ac.in/cstyle.pdf>). Submissions must necessarily contain an abstract of not more than 200 words and five keywords.

6. Co-Authorship:

Co-authoring of papers among individuals of the same or different institutions is permissible up to a maximum of two authors per paper.

7. Formatting Guidelines:

- The authors are strictly required to use British English only.
- The submission must be word-processed and in Times New Roman.
