ABOUT PANJAB UNIVERSITY

Panjab University, located in Chandigarh, India, stands as a renowned institution with a rich history and academic excellence. Established in 1882 in Lahore and later relocated to Chandigarh in 1958, it is known for its commitment to providing quality education and fostering research across various disciplines. The sprawling campus designed by the renowned architect Le Corbusier, serves as an ideal setting for academic pursuits in the heart of Chandigarh. Ranked in NIRF Ranking 2023 at 25th Rank among the Indian universities and CGPA of 3.68 on a four-point scale at A++ Grade in NAAC Grading, it continues to be a beacon of learning in the heart of Chandigarh.

ABOUT DEPARTMENT OF LAWS

Established in 1889, the Department of Laws at Panjab University holds a prominent position among legal institutions in India. Offering undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral programs, it has a rich history of producing skilled legal professionals. The faculty comprises experienced scholars and practitioners who guide students through theoretical concepts and practical applications. The department actively promotes research and encourages faculty and students to participate in national and international conferences. Additionally, the moot court competitions and debates organized by the department offer students a platform to apply legal theories in simulated courtroom scenarios, honing their advocacy skills.

UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) is the main deliberative, policymaking, and representative organ of the United Nations. Comprising all 193 Member States, it serves as a forum for nations to discuss and address global challenges, ranging from peace and security to human rights and sustainable development. UNGA sessions provide a platform for diplomatic dialogue, negotiation, and decision-making on a wide range of issues affecting the international community. Delegates engage in debates, draft resolutions, and collaborate to seek consensus on pressing global matters, embodying the spirit of multilateralism and cooperation.

AGENDA:

“Role of Science and Technology in the context of International Security and Disarmament”

UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

The United Nations Human Rights Council (UNHRC) is a key organ of the United Nations responsible for promoting and protecting human rights around the world. Comprising 47 Member States elected by the General Assembly, the UNHRC addresses human rights violations, conducts investigations, and makes recommendations to improve human rights conditions globally. Delegates in Model United Nations (MUN) simulations of the UNHRC engage in rigorous debates, draft resolutions, and work collaboratively to address pressing human rights issues such as discrimination, freedom of expression, and access to education and healthcare. Participation in UNHRC simulations allows delegates to deepen their understanding of human rights principles, enhance their advocacy skills, and contribute to advancing the global human rights agenda.

AGENDA:

“Human Rights Situation in the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including East Jerusalem, and the Obligation to Ensure Accountability and Justice”

ALL INDIA POLITICAL PARTY MEET

The All India Political Parties Meet (AIPPM) is a dynamic committee within Model United Nations (MUN) conferences, simulating the political landscape of India. Designed to emulate the intricate workings of India's diverse political parties, AIPPM provides delegates with a platform to engage in robust debates, strategic negotiations, and coalition building. Delegates represent various political parties, each with its unique ideologies, policies, and interests, mirroring the complexity of India's vibrant democracy. Through participation in AIPPM simulations, delegates delve into pressing national issues, craft policy proposals, and navigate the intricacies of coalition politics, honing their diplomatic, negotiation, and leadership skills. AIPPM offers an immersive experience that fosters critical thinking, collaboration, and an understanding of the democratic process within the Indian context.

AGENDA:

“Exploring Freedom of Speech and Expression, particularly in Relation to Communal Tensions, Internet Issues, and Censorship”

INTERNATIONAL PRESS

The International Press (IP) committee in Model United Nations (MUN) conferences serves as the voice of journalism, providing coverage, analysis, and commentary on the proceedings of the conference. Delegates in the IP committee take on the role of reporters, editors, and media professionals representing various international news outlets. Through news articles, opinion pieces, interviews, and press conferences, delegates in the IP committee strive to provide comprehensive and balanced coverage of the simulated events, debates, and resolutions unfolding in other committees. The IP committee fosters critical thinking, research, and writing skills, as delegates navigate ethical dilemmas, verify sources, and uphold journalistic integrity. Participation in the IP committee offers delegates a unique perspective on global issues, media dynamics, and the importance of a free and responsible press in shaping public discourse and promoting transparency in international affairs.
